

Sandpipers Select Fashion Show Head

Chairmanship of the Annual Sandpiper Fashion Show will be assumed by Mrs. Douglas Kilgour, according to an announcement by Mrs. John H. Grimes, chairman of Sandpiper social activities.

Flavian PTA Picks Theme for Winter

"We are the Heirs of the Ages," a quotation from Sidney Dark, was the theme approved by the Flavian PTA Executive Board at its first meeting of the year held Aug. 4, at the home of Mrs. Francis Ellis, corresponding secretary.

The following program, whose monthly themes are also famous quotations, was accepted: For September, the theme "Thou Shalt Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself"—Matt. 22:39, will highlight the acquainted night; the October theme "Nurture Your Mind with Good Thoughts"—Disraeli, stresses home reading and features a program on narcotics and juvenile delinquency.

In November, an instructional demonstration will enable the group to study the school. The theme is "No Man is Wise Enough by Himself"—Platus. In December, "The Glow of Inspiration Warms Us, It is a Holy Rapture"—Ovid, tells the joys of Christmas through sharing.

January will bring a foreign exchange student-speaker with the theme "I Am Not a Citizen of Athens, Greece, But of the World"—Socrates. "The Things Courage Can Do"—Sir James M. Barrie, will lead the way for the Founder's Day Program and Honorary Life Membership Presentations in February.

In May, the theme, "It is No Disgrace to Start All Over, It is Usually an Opportunity"—George Adams, will help Flavian begin its fifth milestone.

The following chairmen were ratified: Mrs. Lloyd C. Spegl Jr., courtesy; Mrs. Orin Bee, hospitality; Mrs. Zygmond Giza, legislative; Mrs. Harry Vanderburg, recreation; Mrs. Reagan Idom, T.E.A.C.; Mrs. Thomas Hoffman, TV, radio and movie pictures.

Safety will be stressed in March under the theme "An Ounce of Prevention is Worth a Pound of Cure"—Ben Franklin. The annual eighth grade style show is to be emphasized by the April theme, "A Stitch in Time Saves Nine"—Ben Franklin.

Other chairmen ratified were Mrs. Ralph Reese, international relations; Mrs. Robert Golden, room representative; Mrs. Richard Bailey, founder's day; Mrs. Wayne Schaffer, music; Mrs. Mike Bankers, magazine and emblems; and Mrs. W. W. Jarrett, newsette and publicity.

Oct. 18 has been set as the date for the annual event which raises funds to carry on philanthropic activities of the Sandpipers. The fashion show will be held in the Embassy Room of the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles and will be preceded by a cocktail reception in the lovely Venetian Rooms of the Hotel.

"Portrait of Fashions" will be the theme of the show, which will feature the original creations of Charles LeMaize, who will stage and commentate the show. LeMaize resigned recently from his position as head of wardrobe and costume design at 20th Century Fox Studios, a position which he held for many years.

"Portrait of Fashions" will be LeMaize's first large public fashion show in the area. Assisting Mrs. Kilgour in plans for the show will be Mrs. Harold Bosacki and Mrs. Vernon Benson, program; Mrs. Fredric C. Joy and Mrs. Forrest Z. Riegel, table favors; Mrs. William Jennings, door prizes; and Mrs. Walter Jacobsmeyer, raffle.

Reservations for "Portrait of Fashions" will be opened Sept. 1, according to Mrs. J. Calvin Moon, reservations chairman, extending an open invitation.

Sorority Gathers at Pot Luck Luau

The garden of Ruth Phelps will be transformed into a Polynesian scene Saturday, Aug. 20, at 4 p.m. as members of Xi Gamma chapter, Beta Sigma Phi sorority, and guests gather for a pot luck luau. The luau will be served on mats on the floor, island style, as participants come attired in grass skirts, leis, hibiscus, and bare feet. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lockwood of Torrance are among persons attending.

Fuschia Society Installs Officers

The gardens of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Eipper 25338 Pennsylvania Ave., Lomita, will be the setting for a pot luck dinner and installation of officers of the Lomita Fuschia Society tomorrow at 6:30 p.m.

Officers elected for the 1960 term are Mrs. Raymond E. Arnold, president; C. O. Eipper, vice president; Mrs. G. A. Carvill, secretary; and Mrs. John R. Johanson, treasurer.

At the get-together, Mrs. Alpha Stump, representative, and John Cody, alternate, will be installed by Elmer O. Monson, president of the California National Fuschia Society.

Mrs. John Martin, president of the Redondo area branch of the American Begonia Society and vice president of the South Gate Branch of the California National Fuschia Society, will be guest speaker.

Mrs. Martin will show slides and speak on fuschias and begonias. Also, she will demonstrate rooting of begonia leaves, including the Rex Begonia.

There will be a plant table and birthday cake and coffee at the installation to celebrate the 15th birthday of the organization.

Birthdays Come But Once Yearly, Thank Goodness

By Hannah Sampson

Birthday gifts are becoming most imaginative lately. Nancy, 7, my daughter, received a box containing several loaf cake mixes, an assortment of colored sprinkles, a package of ready-to-bake biscuits, instant puddings, and popover mix at her last party. Thus, Nancy has fixed dessert at two meals with very little supervision, and biscuits for a company dinner. Her pride in her accomplishment knows no bounds.

Jane's birthday was a wheeled toy parade around the block with toys and children elaborately decorated with crepe paper and balloons, culminating in a picnic lunch.

Older children prefer more select groups for a slumber party the night before and ending with lunch and an afternoon movie.

Nancy, claims she wants a "sleeper" party next year, with (for breakfast) chocolate flavored cereal AND ICE CREAM as the birthday food. Why not?

At age 10, daughter Joan invited only girls who were provided with individual lipsticks and other harmless cosmetics, a carton of dress-up clothes and 25 cent mirrors which they later were permitted to take home as favors. Needless to say this kept them absorbed for no little time.

Modern celebrations are a far cry from the ice cream, birthday cake and donkey games of my childhood. Even though the parties keep a mother hopping, the 8 mm color films which result are priceless.

Members Attend Federation Meet

Instigating a new club for hundreds of young women of the Marina District, CFWC, junior membership, Mrs. Robert H. Baida, newly elected president, presided over an executive board meeting recently.

Mrs. Joseph J. Boylan of Torrance is the new federation extension secretary for the organization.

Plans were made for the President's Round Table to be held at the El Segundo Women's Club. The Area C Conference of the CFWC will be hosted by the Marina District at the Surfside Inn in Santa Monica.

Mrs. Leonard Comer, first vice president of Marina District, will hold a district chairman's meeting at her home in Hermosa Beach. Emphasis will be placed on the Marine District theme for this year, "International Understanding," which is in keeping with that of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, "Circle the World with Friendship."

Women Surprise Klatch Hostess With Turnabout

Hosting a Welcome Koffee Klatch for Mrs. Lionel Davies, a recent arrival from Canada, Mrs. Charles Clark was surprised when the Carmen Street gathering turned out to be a baby shower for the hostess. "Let no one say that a woman cannot keep a secret, for fifteen women managed to completely astonish Val Clark in the best-kept secret since the invasion of Normandy," one of the surprisers declared.

Among the shower gifts were layette dainties for the expected infant and a trousseau of glamorous lingerie for the expectant mother.

Among those present were the Mmes. John Helton, Stephen Sampson, Joe Clavin, Lorence Schmidt, Daniel Stradley, Thomas L.aney, Vernon Craft, John Conrad, Roy E. Britzman, Robert Sjodin, John Kusemiller, Robert Brown, Al Alston, and Wilmer Grossman.

Pair Exchanges Vows at Evening Ceremony

Attired in a white nylon tulle and chantilly lace gown, carrying a corsage with white rosebuds and a white slip-out orchid, Joyce Marie Bonstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bonstrom, was wed Aug. 6.

At the 4:30 p.m. ceremony, Miss Bonstrom was given in marriage by her father to Michael Cummings, son of Mrs. Grace Cummings.

The wedding took place in the Christ the King Lutheran Church, which was decorated with white stocks and gladiolas, with the Rev. Maynard Midthum presiding.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Patricia Ingle, matron of honor, and Judy La Claire and Julie Widmark, bridesmaids.

Mrs. Ingle wore a pastel coral gown of organza over China silk. The ballerina-length gown had a coral crown, veil and shoes to match.

Miss La Claire wore a two-tone pink pastel silk organza, with a heart shaped, picture frame, pink hat and open crown shoes to match.

Miss Widmark wore a two-tone green silk organza gown also with a heart-shaped picture frame hat crown, but in green.

Attending the groom were Jeffery Lindsay, best man, and Mike Barlet and Steve Mearing, ushers. Sammy Miller served as ring bearer at the double ring ceremony.

Wearing white eyelet nylon over yellow, the flower girl, Pamela Golden, carried Lily of the Valley and yellow rose buds.

Mothers of the couple were attired in yellow and beige.

Following the ceremony, a lawn reception was held at 3784 W. 181 St. at 4:30 p.m., from where the couple departed for an Oregon honeymoon.

Both the bride and groom are graduates of North High School. Cummings plans to attend El Camino in September. Their new Mrs. Cummings is employed at Noland Paper Company.

Officers Take PTA Duties

Planning for the 1960-61 term of the Harbor City School PTA has begun with a discussion of the proposed program and ratification of new chairmen.

Mrs. Stephen Silkotch conducted a meeting in the office of Mrs. Creech, principal, to discuss the plans which will follow the year's theme, "We Open the Door to New Frontiers for Children."

Mrs. Anders Klungresetter, ways and means chairman, presented the projects proposed to raise necessary funds to carry on the work of the PTA.

Under discussion was the proposed budget for the term. These plans will be presented to the PTA board in September for its approval.

Ratified to serve as officers are Mrs. Lloyd Saunders, achievement evaluation; Mrs. John Gerster, art; Mrs. Charles Smith, co-art; Mrs. Clarence Bramley and Mrs. Robert Teague, clippings.

Other officers ratified are Mrs. Dallas Wallick, Founders Day; Mrs. Joe Barham, health; Mrs. Michael Travers, honorary life; Mrs. Lloyd Hampton, hospitality; Mrs. John Balch, kitchen; and Mrs. James Alexander, co-membership.

Mrs. David Alexander, recreation; Mrs. Floyd Paine and Mrs. Clarence Bramley, room representative; Mrs. Charles Arbuckle, school of education; and Mrs. Wallace Lingren, co-ways and means will serve.

Women Continue Polio Clinics

Inspired by community response to the previous clinics, the Junior Woman's Club of Wilmington have added two more polio clinics to their original schedule.

In previous clinics, more than 1500 shots were given. In August, 4732 shots were given, with 213 persons receiving their first inoculation. Due to the large turnout the today and Sept. 15, Those receiving first shots Aug. 4 and 18 will be able to get their second shot Sept. 15.

All clinics are held at the Wilmington Woman's Clubhouse, Lakme and Denni, at 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. for $1 donation. Balloons for children have been donated by Shoppers Market and helium by Richfield. Drug supplies have been given by Stacy Drug. Children unaccompanied by parents are required by bring written permission from home for shots.

The vaccinations are being administered by local doctors assisted by the Wilmington Junior and Senior Woman's Clubs. All proceeds will be donated to the new Wilmington Community Hospital, which serves Wilmington, Torrance and surrounding areas. "All persons over 40 are urged to begin their polio shots. Those who have had three shots are advised to have a yearly booster shot," said Mrs. James Hartley.

Arrangements for the Junior Woman's Club Clinics have been made by Mrs. William Mendenhall, Torrance, of the Junior Club, and Mrs. C. C. Kimmaman, Wilmington, of the Senior Club.

Smooth, Polished Look Highlights Hair Styles

Smooth, polished hairdos make headlines for fall—and teen-age girls can choose theirs from 14 styles created by New York's headline-making hair stylists.

That is the beauty news from Seventeen Magazine, which spotlights orderly, silken hairdos, ranging from short, sleek bobs to long, flowing page boys, including variations for every shape of face and type of hair.

The new styles include: Page Boy: The classic forerunner of all the clean, simple styles.

Cloche: Caps the head-to show the new smoothness at its shortest length.

Young Siren: A softly sweeping haiko that's perfect for a long face.

Flapper, 1960: Swept forward at the sides in two comma curls which provide a mouflage for plump cheeks.

Ruffle-Cut: Turned-up ends and demure side bangs.

Pouf: A short, sleek haiko that's a cinch for hard-to-curl hair.

Wings: Long, daring and almost straight, this style is not for everybody—but when it clicks, it's sensational.

Turnabout: Party page boy, partly flipped-up ends, it's a flatterer for people with long, slender faces.

Nosegay: Soft bangs and smooth back-swept curls accentuate pretty eyes.

Alice in Wonderland: Gentle discipline for thin, straight hair, worn long.

Empire: A back-swept natural for too curly hair, waves over the ears.

City Slicker: Perennially popular, but with new low-slung waves.

Butterfly Cut: An always flattering frame of curls, with winged bangs.
